

WE ARE HIRING

FINELLI is the biggest streetwear brand in Switzerland, founded in Zurich in 2019. The brand has been bringing a unique take on urban high-street fashion by connecting art from around the world. An exciting opportunity has arisen to join our team at our flagship store in Zurich. We are seeking sales associates to start in May who are motivated by fashion and will confidently work in the store.

SALES ASSISTANT M/W/D

We are looking for applicants who meet the following requirements and could work part-time (20h) from May 2025.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Individual style and product advisor for our international customer clientele
- Sale of our high-quality products with a strong focus to do business
- Store management and ensuring a high-class store presentation at all times
- Ensuring tidiness and cleanliness in the store
- Further administrative tasks and support of special projects as needed

YOUR PROFILE

- First professional experience in fashion retail with high customer and service orientation
- Strong fashion affinity, proactive and independent working style and an eye for details
- Contact friendly and trustworthy personality, goal orientation, reliability, flexibility
- Knowledge of fabrics and functional textiles highly appreciated
- Good computer skills, German and English fluent
- Willingness and possibility to work Saturdays

WE OFFER

- an open, transparent business culture with highly motivated, young team members
- the chance to work with an experienced, creative, and dynamic management team
- independent work with good development prospects
- flexible working hours

If this is you, we are happy to meet you! Please send your complete application by April 30th 2025 (motivation letter, CV, certificates) to Amina Akram, job@finelli.ch.