

WE ARE HIRING

FINELLI is the biggest streetwear brand in Switzerland, founded in Zurich in 2019. The brand has been bringing a unique take on urban high-street fashion by connecting art from around the world. An exciting opportunity has arisen to join our team in Zurich. We are seeking an intern to join our team in May, ideal for those passionate about fashion and looking to deeply engage with the industry.

INTERNSHIP M/W/D

We are looking for applicants who meet the following requirements and could work full-time (40h) from May 2025.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Individual style and product advisor for our international customer clientele
- Store management and ensuring a high-class store presentation at all times
- Ensuring tidiness and cleanliness in the store
- Assist with inventory management and the handling of order fulfillment
- Further administrative tasks and support of special projects as needed
- Participate in event planning and coordination activities

YOUR PROFILE

- Strong fashion affinity, proactive and independent working style and an eye for details
- Contact friendly and trustworthy personality, goal orientation, reliability, flexibility
- Knowledge of fabrics and functional textiles highly appreciated
- Good computer skills, German and English fluent
- Willingness and possibility to work Saturdays
- Must possess a valid driver's license to assist with transport-related tasks as needed

WE OFFER

- An open, transparent business culture with highly motivated, young team members
- The chance to work with an experienced, creative, and dynamic management team
- Independent work with good development prospects
- Flexible working hours
- Enjoy access to exclusive festivals and events through our company
- Receive exclusive pieces from FINELLI as part of your benefits

If this is you, we are happy to meet you! Please send your complete application by April 30th 2025 (motivation letter, CV, certificates) to Amina Akram, job@finelli.ch.

